Please email me and I will send you the booking form;

Size of group

To ensure you get the best learning experience, the trainee-to-trainer ratio is designed to provide plenty of support. For online sessions – there will be one trainer or assistant for every six participants.

Throughout the course, assistants will be available, and I'll be on hand during breaks and throughout the sessions if you ever need additional support.

The maximum class size is 20, allowing me to really get to know you and understand what you want from the course. This way, I can tailor examples and applications to suit your needs—whether that's in your workplace, personal life, or with family or clients.

I want to make sure this course is as valuable and relevant to you as possible, so if you have any specific areas of interest, feel free to share them with me.

What if I can't attend the whole course?

If you're looking to become a certified NLP Practitioner, attending all the sessions is essential. These sessions provide the insights and hands-on experience needed to fully understand and apply NLP effectively and to complete the course. That said, I completely understand that life happens! If you're unable to attend a session, there are flexible options available to help you stay on track:

- Listen and Learn with Support – You'll have access to the session audios, and you would need to book a one-to-one session with me for additional guidance. Each missed day would require approximately 2 hours of support at £100 per hour.

- Focused One-To-One Catch-up – A half-day one-to-one session can cover the key content you missed, using a ½-day ratio per missed day. This is also available at £100 per hour.

I'm here to support you in getting the most from your NLP journey, so please feel free to reach out if you'd like to discuss the best option for you!

How will I learn?

For every topic, you will firstly understand the benefits of learning the subject; why you may want to learn what I am going to be sharing with you.

You will then learn about the history, research, science, real life examples, and so on, before exploring the actual process.

Where applicable, there will be a demonstration of the process which will be followed by an opportunity for you to work with a partner as Practitioner and as a client.

Finally, you will have an opportunity to discuss your learning, ask any questions you may have and discover how you can apply what you have learnt in your own personal or professional situation.

For the pre-recorded sessions, you will have an opportunity during the live trainings to check your knowledge and ask any questions related to the content.

Will I need to study in my own time?

You will be sent a reading list in advance of the course and you are encouraged to read at least one of the books listed. In addition, it is advantageous for you to re-read the manual after each session and practice the subjects you have learnt, so as to really embed your learning.

You will be expected to review a series of pre-recorded training sessions in your own time for each module – these are a fundamental part of the course. There will also be an assignment for you to answer to check your knowledge as you go.

There will be a practical assessment at the end of the course, therefore private study time will be required to ensure you are fully ready and at the required level to pass the course.

How will I be assessed?

To pass the NLP Practitioner course, you will be assessed throughout the whole course in terms of understanding, participation, contribution and application of the learning. It is at the discretion of the lead trainer as to whether you have met the expected level and they will give constructive feedback, should this be necessary.

In addition, there will be a written assignment that is completed throughout the course and on the final day of the course, there is a practical assessment. I will work with you throughout the programme to ensure that you are ready for these elements.

If you are not yet at the level required by then, provided it will be beneficial to yourself and for the rest of the group, you can revisit a later course to deepen your understanding. You will receive a certificate of attendance for the course dates attended until you achieve the relevant level required for full certification.

What happens after the course?

The next level of study is the NLP Master Practitioner course.

In addition, on the third Wednesday evening of the month I run NLP Practice workshops, which you would be more than welcome to attend and I run quarterly NLP Supervision sessions, if you are using your NLP skills with clients.

Thoughts from previous attendees

I am thrilled every time I receive feedback, as I know that NLP is helping so many people to achieve greatness in their lives. If you would like to discover what other participants think, then you can read their reviews via Google My Business.

“The Practitioner Course is jam-packed with theory and time to create personal change whilst learning how to coach others. I was able to stop biting nails, reduce sugar intake, and overcame a fear I had of frogs! All this just in the practice sessions. Plus I have grown in confidence and made friends.”

Still not sure if this course is right for you?

Our recommendation is for you to ‘dip your toe’ into the NLP waters by watching the NLP Taster session – that way you can learn a bit more about NLP and meet me, your trainer. You can access the pre-recorded Taster session here: <https://tally.so/r/mVYEGE>
